

Canada's Five Regions

1. An ecumene is a region that is well suited to permanent settlement. Which of these best defines Canada's ecumene?
 - A. the plains region
 - B. the border region
 - C. the tundra region
 - D. the subarctic region
2. Why were lighthouses first built in the Atlantic Region?
 - A. to store grain
 - B. to attract tourists
 - C. to generate electricity
 - D. to prevent shipwrecks
3. The castle-like buildings found in the Pacific Region show the influence of which of Canada's founding peoples?
 - A. Asian immigrants
 - B. British settlers
 - C. French colonists
 - D. Native Americans
4. Which of these is the main reason why so few people live in Canada's Northern Region?
 - A. dense forests
 - B. few resources
 - C. harsh winters
 - D. rugged mountains
5. The illustration below shows buildings most often found in which kind of region?

- A. rural
- B. urban
- C. mining
- D. manufacturing

Applying Geography Skills: Reading a Population Change Map

This map shows how Canada's population changed between 2001 and 2006. Use the map and your knowledge of geography to complete the tasks below.