

Name: _____ Class: _____ Date: _____

Native American Mythological Monsters Video - stations

1. What is the name of the monster that you watched the video about? Circle one.

Windigo

Mato (giant bear)

Qallupilluit / Qalupalik

2. Describe the monster and what made it scary.
-

3. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?
-
-

Native American Mythological Monsters Video - stations

4. What is the name of the monster that you watched the video about? Circle one.

Windigo

Mato (giant bear)

Qallupilluit / Qalupalik

5. Describe the monster and what made it scary.
-

6. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?
-
-

Native American Mythological Monsters Video - stations

7. What is the name of the monster that you watched the video about? Circle one.

Windigo

Mato (giant bear)

Qallupilluit / Qalupalik

8. Describe the monster and what made it scary.
-

9. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?
-
-

Native American Mythological Monsters Reading - stations

10. What is the name of the monster that you read about? Circle one.

The Water Monster

Man-Eating Monster

The Horned Snake

11. What special powers or abilities does the monster have which make it particularly dangerous?

12. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?

Native American Mythological Monsters Reading - stations

13. What is the name of the monster that you read about? Circle one.

The Water Monster

Man-Eating Monster

The Horned Snake

14. What special powers or abilities does the monster have which make it particularly dangerous?

15. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?

Native American Mythological Monsters Reading - stations

16. What is the name of the monster that you read about? Circle one.

The Water Monster

Man-Eating Monster

The Horned Snake

17. What special powers or abilities does the monster have which make it particularly dangerous?

18. What is the purpose of the monster in this story? What is it being used to help explain? Is the story meant to encourage a positive behavior or discourage a negative behavior?

Native American Mythological Monsters online search - stations

19. What is the name of the first monster that you're researching? Circle one.

Thunderbird

Skin Walkers

Severed/Flying/Rolling Heads

20. What tribe or culture is this monster associated with, and where did these people traditionally live?

21. Where does the monster come from, or how is it created? Some creatures come about because of specific actions, others seem to have always existed.

22. What special powers or abilities does the monster have which make it particularly dangerous or terrifying?

23. Think about where the tribe lived and the dangers its people would have faced. What behaviours would have been important to their survival? What might the monster serve as a warning about related to how people in this culture should or should not act? What evidence from the mythology helps support your analysis?
